The Navigation Buttons on the left give students and teachers access to the features of MathXL for School.

The screenshot displays the MathXL for School interface. On the left, a vertical sidebar contains navigation buttons. A red box highlights the 'Student' section, which includes 'Course Home', 'Calendar', 'Homework and Tests', 'Results', and 'Study Plan'. Another red box highlights the 'Instructor' section, which includes 'Course Manager', 'Announcement Manager', 'HW & Test Manager', and 'Gradebook'. A red arrow points from a text box labeled 'Navigation Buttons' to the 'Results' button in the Student section and the 'HW & Test Manager' button in the Instructor section.

A teacher can see the student view at any time through the use of the Student Navigation Buttons. These are the buttons that students use to access all features of MathXL for School.

The screenshot displays the MathXL for School interface. At the top, a green header bar contains the MathXL logo and navigation links: Home, Help, Support, Browser Check, and Log Out. The user is identified as High School 1/3/09 1:52 PM. On the left, a vertical sidebar labeled 'Hide Navigation Buttons' contains two sections: 'Student' and 'Instructor'. The 'Student' section includes buttons for 'My Courses', 'Course Home', 'Calendar', 'Homework and Tests', 'Results', and 'Study Plan'. The 'Instructor' section includes buttons for 'Course Manager', 'Announcement Manager', 'HW & Test Manager', and 'Gradebook'. A red box highlights the 'Student' navigation buttons, and a red arrow points to the 'Course Home' button. The main content area shows the course 'Algebra I (Martin-Gay, 5e)' with a welcome message and a list of instructions for starting the course. On the right, a 'My Assignments' section shows no assignments due today and a link to see the overall score. At the bottom, a footer note states the course is based on Martin-Gay: Beginning Algebra, 5e, Copyright 2009 Pearson Education.

The screenshot displays the MathXL for School Course Manager interface. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, Help, Support, Browser Check, and Log Out, along with the user's role (High School) and the date/time (1/3/09 5:00 PM). The main content area is titled "Course Manager" and features a yellow bar with two buttons: "Create or copy a course" (highlighted with a red box) and "Manage Course List". Below this, the "New Course" section is visible, showing a progress bar with five steps: 1 Start, 2 Availability, 3 Group Admin, 4 Coverage, and 5 Learning Aids. The "Type of course to create" dropdown is set to "-- Choose --", and the "Course name" field is empty. The "How would you like to create your -- choose -- course?" section offers three options: "Create a new course" (selected), "Copy one of my existing courses", and "Copy a course from another instructor". A "Choose the textbook for this course" dropdown is set to "-- Choose Book --". The bottom of the page shows "Cancel" and "Next" buttons, and the copyright notice "2009 Pearson Education".
